Members Absent: Everett McLaughlin, Douglas Hill, Carole Hall, and Paula McDonald.

Call meeting to order: J. Goodhue called the meeting to order at 7:05 p.m.

2. APPLICATIONS: None at this time.

3. OTHER BUSINESS-

1. Presentations- Tim Nolin, Forest Land Improvement, Inc. Landowner Goal Assessment discussion.

Discussion: T. Nolin discussed the Wilson Weeks lot and explained there was one day left to finish mapping and taking pictures. He spoke about concerns over access, as the only way to access the property is through Maricami property (formerly Milo Pike property). Another possibility is E. McLaughlin on Belknap Mountain Rd. T. Nolin will look into access this week.

T. Nolin will report back to the Conservation Commission at the June 19, 2007 meeting.

2. 90 Cherry Valley Rd- Weeks Woods drain pipe- Complaint from Teresa Boardman about a drain pipe discharging from the Weeks Woods trail that flooded her basement.

Discussion: on-site inspection was to be conducted on May 16, 2007.

Chairman Goodhue inspected area and was unable to find the pipe Ms. Boardman described. The Commissioners will look at this again at a later date.

Action (if any)-The Commissioners will re-inspect at a later time._

3. Water testing equipment

Discussion:

The Finance Director has signed the purchase order. L. Duncan will follow up with the state.

4. Lake Host Program

Chairman Goodhue will Chair the Lake Host program and work with Stephanie V. to complete application.
